

ETHICS CONVERSATION SERIES

THURS
JULY 14

FRAUD AND ITS RECENT GIANTS

6:00 - 7:30 P.M. » WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON SCHOOL OF LAW, CLASSROOM 2

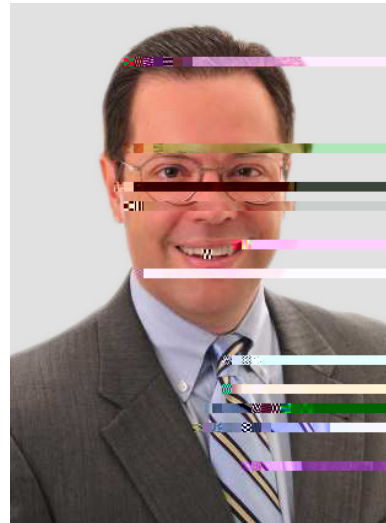

Register at shidler.hawaii.edu/weinstein | Free Admission | $6 parking after 4 p.m. on campus

From the glamorization of greed in the late 1990s to the deceptive trading and fraudulent practices in the early 2000s, the past couple of years illustrate how illicit behavior on Wall Street remains a major concern in the post-Enron era. Come get inside the minds of some of the big perpetrators and examine why large corporations seem to be breeding grounds for fraudulent behavior, and how avarice transforms results, both positively and negatively.

WES REBER PORTER

President and CEO, Damien Memorial School (Hawaii); Visiting Professor of Law, UH Mānoa William S. Richardson School of Law

MICHAEL PURPURA

Partner, Carlsmith Ball LLP; Former Assistant U.S. Attorney; Former Associate Counsel to the President