

TUES
JULY 26

LEGAL ETHICS

6:00 - 7:30 P.M. » WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON SCHOOL OF LAW, CLASSROOM 2

Register at shidler.hawaii.edu/weinstein | Free Admission | $6 parking after 4 p.m. on campus
Licensed attorneys are eligible for continuing legal education credits.
For additional information, visit shidler.hawaii.edu/weinstein.

Whether closing a deal or settling a dispute, what does it mean to bargain ethically? What are the rules of the game(s)? Is attorney-client privilege unambiguously good? Is incarceration the best alternative? Does legal equate to ethical? Come join four prestigious legal professionals as they dive into these and other fascinating dilemmas in today's legal environment.

KEN LAWSON

Associate Faculty Specialist,
UH Mānoa William S.
Richardson School of Law

J. MICHAEL SEABRIGHT

Chief Judge; U.S. District
Court of Hawaii

SCOTT PEPPET

Professor, University of Colorado Law School

JACQUELINE SABEC

Partner, King, Holmes,
Paterno & Soriano, LLP