

"Best Practices and Approaches for Domestic Mediations... Divorce, Custody, Family, Guardianship, Special Education and Beyond"

NOVEMBER 9, Noon – 1:15 p.m.

Nationally recognized mediator Nina Meierding will provide her insights and experience with mediation in England, Ireland, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Scotland, and Sweden.

She was the Director and Senior Mediator at the Mediation Center in Ventura, California from 1988-2002 and is now a fulltime trainer (Negotiation and Mediation Training Services) professor, and conflict resolution consultant. Nina has taught at the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine University School of Law for over 20 years and also taught at Southern Methodist University for almost 20 years. She has been an instructor at the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada, and the California Judicial College and is a guest lecturer at universities throughout the United States.

Nina served as a special education mediator for the California State Department of Education and was the mediation partner and trainer for the Wisconsin Social Education System from 2007-2017.

She is a former president of the Academy of F