

Assignment Makeovers in the Age of AI:

Contextual Policies, Assignment Strategies, Hands-on Activities, and Open Discussion

Fall 2024

Thursday, September 12
12:00 pm - 1:15 pm
Online Event

Based on contextual information about the use of AI at the University of Hawai'i and other higher education institutions, this interactive, AI-focused webinar with hands-on activities aims to engage instructors in rethinking assignment designs to promote critical thinking. No AI experience or advanced digital skills are required.

PRESENTED BY

Laura Armer
Director, Digital Learning Initiatives, Social Sciences
Online Programs

Vaneesa Ghemri Jordan
Digital Learning Specialist, Global and International Education

This event is sponsored by the College of Social Sciences. Share a link to the event

recording. To request additional accommodations, please email us before the event.

808-956-6978
cte@hawaii.edu
www.ofdas.hawaii.edu