

Graduate School Open Educational Resources

Fall 2024

Tuesday, October 1st

12:00 - 1:15

Kearney 106 E Room

What are Open Educational Resources? How do they fit into textbook affordability at UH Mānoa? Which exciting projects are already in the works? This introductory session will answer these questions and more, showcasing major adoptions and innovative OER publishing happening at UHM and across the UH system. Come find out why so many courses are switching to OER, and how faculty and instructors can get support adopting and customizing OER for their courses.

PRESENTERS
